About Member: Founded in 1985, we have an unprecedented focus on market-driven software development – allowing us to create a superior solution that incorporates industry best practices. And, because no two clients are exactly alike, we offer a level of flexibility that's not available from any other event business management software provider.

As a company, Ungerboeck has the stability that comes from being 100% family owned, with zero debt. We've experienced 1000% growth over the last 15 years, allowing us to attract – and retain – some of the best and brightest talent in the industry, worldwide. Our clients stick with Ungerboeck because of the software, and because they know who will be supporting their software one, three, ten years down the road – and beyond.
